Ananya Sen

Speaker & Author on Modern Work

ILLUSTRATIVE PHOTO

Better conversations. Better ways of working.

Keynotes and practical sessions on collaboration, communication and the choices that shape modern work. I connect memorable stories with ideas an audience can use the next day.

THE PROFILE IN CONTEXT

I explore why capable people still struggle to work well together. My writing and talks make room for the human details behind organizational language: what a handoff feels like, how a meeting shapes behavior and why clarity is often an act of care. I connect a relatable story with a practical question, then give the audience something to try. My current book concept, The Space Between Meetings, develops these themes into a wider conversation about modern work.

Organizer essentials

Short bio

Ananya Sen, speaker and writer

Fictional profile focused on collaboration and practical communication at work.

Audience promise

Memorable and applicable

A clear idea, a relatable story and a next-day action—not a guarantee of organizational change.

Press assets

Supply verified material before launch

Replace sample biography, book details, photos and speaking footage with approved assets.

GOOD FIT

Events that value thoughtful communication and practical audience participation.

IMPORTANT BOUNDARY

Claims of bestselling status, awards or past event appearances not supported by real evidence.

Can a talk be customized?	The examples support a scoped adaptation to the audience and event theme.
Can the session be recorded?	Recording, redistribution and promotional clips require agreed rights.
What does an organizer need to provide?	Audience profile, timing, format, venue or platform and accessibility requirements.
